Social media changes are coming

From 10 December, certain social media platforms won't be allowed to let Australian children under 16 create or keep an account.

Visit the eSafety hub

for information and resources to support parents and carers, young people to prepare for the change.

